We do what we can to protect our visitors.

We do not collect data on our visitors through our cookies. We have one cookie for our web page to direct to the intranet. There are no Facebook or other cookies from Tech giants.

If you choose to access other shelters, advisors or organizations websites via us, please be aware that there may be 'tracking cookies'. In any case, we recommend that you use browser extensions to block them. Using these blocks as shown on the webpage is recommended, otherwise be wary of browser extensions in general.
